

*For Immediate Release
April 20, 2009*

Mendez named Association of Division III Independents baseball Player of the Week

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – St. Joseph's College (N.Y.) freshman catcher/third baseman Jon Mendez (Brooklyn, N.Y.) is this week's Association of Division III Independents baseball Player of the Week. Mendez batted .480 on the week and had an .880 slugging percentage and a .536 on base percentage as the Bears went 4-2. In a victory over Lincoln University, he went 5-for-5 with a home run, three doubles, eight RBI and four runs. Mendez tallied two home runs throughout the week and accumulated 15 RBI and 10 runs.

###

Scheer selected as Association of Division III Independents softball Player of the Week

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – St. Joseph's College (N.Y.) freshman pitcher/third baseman Lisa Scheer (Queens, N.Y.) has been named the Association of Division III Independents softball Player of the Week. Scheer led her squad to a 6-0 record on the week, which extended the team's winning streak to nine games. Inside the circle, Scheer went 3-0 including a pair of complete game shutouts over New Rochelle and New York University. She tossed a one-hit shutout against NYU as she struck out 11 and walked none. On the week, she had a 1.33 ERA, eight hits and 25 strike outs over 21 innings of work. From the plate, Scheer compiled a .333 batting average and drove in five runs.

###